

1 Wed.

Si - This must be short. I am cramped upon a bunk while the ~~peon~~ pedestrians wax and buff the floor - remember pledging.

Our new company commander, Capt. David T.
Erwin, is a "State Man." Also had Pvt.
Funk, Theta Chi, until he was medically discharged yesterday. He's with Gov.
Punting & is living with his wife ~~to~~ somewhere
in S.W. D.C.

Also - The assistant is Lt. Robert Heiser - Funk just told me the past weekend that the Lt. is the little brother of, yes that is correct, Hank Heiser.

All my orders are screwed up & Monday is scheduled to be in two separate places. As it looks now I'll be receiving a L-E-A-V-E. - July 2nd until the 15th - Tentative.

I'll be driving back with my two BU buddies. Janet Needham, you remember her (?), is expecting me about August 20th, has arranged to take a week off.
all the Army is nuts! Am right at home. So I have a surprise for Miss Squid
as soon as these orders are confirmed.

Speaking of surprises - Congratulations on drinking one of OUR BEERS. Whether you know it or not, it put five hairs on your left knee cap; or is it the right one.

Suprise no. two. - got a letter from Marge Dahlke - been pinned to a NAA at UCLA
since November - it must be love!

Received a letter / a wonderful letter /
from Judy telling me of summer camp.

Then of course JC Needham gets off her ass to write once in a while.

1962

Went on a "campout" for a couple of days
in the Kentucky Hills - obviously there weren't enough Officer's Teeps to go around, so the trainees walked. Oh how we walked - then crawled under machine gun fire in the death of night. Grief + Death - what is worse - the Training or the assholes I'm surrounded by.

As sleep is a thing not experienced since Sat. afternoon I must leave brutally - Have an educational trip.

If I receive the word + show in Washington. I'll call - don't cry or lock the door - It's just me,

Brother Frank.

Late Sunday afternoon

Dear Si,

Thought you might enjoy the stationery---the girl who formerly lived in our new apartment was the president, chairman of the board and sole owner of the organization mentioned on the letter-head.

First item of business--your small loan that you were kind enough to lend me will be on the way in the mail tomorrow. I bet that little fact both surprises and makes you happy.

Several items of business--the first and perhaps most exciting thing is the fact that John was really mad that I moved out on him. In fact he was so angry that he locked some of the things that I couldn't carry on the first load in the apartment and wouldn't let me get them. Finally yesterday I got them out of that place. I still haven't checked my books and notes--I think he may have kept some of my notes and books until I pay the light, phone etc. etc., ad nauseum.

I'm now living at 225 East 79th street, apartment 5B. It's just great. It's a semi-professional apartment equipped with a piano among the other furnishings. It's not the most completely furnished apartment in the world but it is certainly in a better neighborhood than where I used to live. A huge living room (about as large as your apartment), a generous bedroom, a kitchen that can seat 4 people, a rather nice, but old bathroom and a large entrance foyer. I'm living with the following people: Frank/Sol, his brother John and a friend of Frank's by the name of Lee Pettibon. Things seem to be working out much better than I had ever dreamed they would. A small crisis arose this morning as my lovely Javas sang out their lovely (but very disturbing if you're not used to it) song. I think my roommates will get used to the sound of them in the morning in a few days. They're going to have to for I'm not getting rid of the little dears.

Started my classes on Wednesday--not bad so far but you should see the guy teaching the French rapid reading course--he is just about the most theatrical fellow you can imagine. He treats us all as ignorant slob who are trying to learn the highly refined and most demanding French language. The first two lectures in American art were very disappointing. It is so remarkable the difference between an undergraduate course and a graduate level course. I think I'd forgotten just what the undergraduate level courses were like. It's really quite a shallow presentation. Despite the rather watered down quality of the course the material is most interesting.

I believe next weekend we're throwing a large party. I believe the purpose of the ~~of~~ party will be to bring a piece of furniture to furnish our apartment. You see we need every stick of furniture we can get. I found a great bamboo mat in an ash can on Second ~~adva~~ the other day--this might give you some indication of our necessity for ~~furniture~~.

The apartment has of course an airconditioner, a fan in the window in the kitchen---so the apartment is indeed cool and quite comfortable.

It was so good to get back here after that quiet weekend at home. I really love it here--I don't see how I could ever live in any other place--save perhaps except for a vacation every now and then.

Speaking of vacations I suppose that ~~you've~~ you've been having a rousing round of bon voyage parties and all sorts of festive things in ~~lieu~~ lieu of your scheduled departure in a few days. My plans now indicate that I will leave New York City on Thursday night after 10:30 since my french course meets from 6:30 to 8:35 and American art meets from 8:15 to 10:15 on Monday, Wednesday and ~~thru~~ day nights. I didn't make a typing error in the above dates--the classes do overlap--it is indeed a quick trip from one class until the other. I stay the full time in french and then dash to American art 20 minutes late.

I did it-----I bought Mondo Cane. It is truly a delightful listening experience. I think I've about worn it out. You really do have excellent taste in Music ~~you~~ know.

Earlier this afternoon Frank had a female named Becky I believe her name was---she ~~insisted~~ insisted that I met her at one of French club meetings at which you presided but I confess I don't recall ever ~~me~~ meeting the creature. She tells me that she will begin her graduate studies at Columbia in the Fall majoring in French, or should I say taking courses toward the Master's degree.

Friday night Sally, Judy myself and some of their Friends went to the most greatest of all imaginable bars--its a little place on the corner of ~~3rd~~ First Avenue and 78th street. Right here in the neighborhood you know. ~~There~~ There is a rather interesting place called Harlows across the street from us at which crowds of people ~~of~~ were waiting to get into on both ~~of~~ Friday and Saturday nights. ~~Perhaps~~ Perhaps when I dig my way out of this financial crisis I may go into the ~~place~~ place.

This afternoon I had to go to the Metropolitan Museum of Art to pick up a book on American art that I promised to buy for

Newtopia Social Club

a female in my class who ~~XX~~ lived in Connecticut and just can't find in Connecticut so I told her it was available in the ~~Metropol~~ Metropolitan and she asked me to pick her up one and so this ~~XX~~ did.

I just can't say enough nice and great things about living on the east ~~XX~~side. ~~XX~~ It's such a change from living on that low class ethnic and utterly dirty West side. I'll never live over there again--it's bad enough that I'll have to ~~XX~~ travel through it on the way to class every day. Oh well I guess I can survive that.

I just can't imagine why I've been so chatty this afternnon--why this letter is twice as long as anything I ever attempt--perhaps the reason is that I'm using an electric typewriter that is part of the ~~furnishings~~ furniture in this ~~furnished~~ furnished apartment for which I will ~~XX~~ pay $45 a month. Quite a reduction from the $90 I formerly ~~XX~~ paid.

Enough of this--I think I'll wait until tomorrow morning at work to mail this letter and in that way I'll put it in the company mail box and they will pay the postage on it and I will save a few lire. You may tell Earl that I'm forwarding him under separate ~~XX~~ cover a little item I found in the Times today that might be of interest to ~~XX~~ him. If I don't forget to take it to work ~~XX~~ with me.

I believe that it's time to quit this letter if the number of mistakes I'm making is any indication of the skill of my ~~XX~~ typing.

Do correspond and let me know if there are any changes in your departure times--also if there are going to be rounds of parties on the Thrusday night before I get ~~XX~~ there. You know/~~XX~~ that I wouldn't want to ~~XX~~ miss them.

Enclosed is a copy of letter that we got at work the other day-p---it ~~XX~~ is a response from a gentlemen who owed us money and we sent him one of our standard formletters telling him ~~XX~~ that he owed us money and that if there was anything we could do we should let him know. In response ~~XX~~ to the formletter he send us the letter of which a Zerox copy is enclosed for ~~XX~~ your reading pleasure. I particularly enjoy the closing and the p.s. of the little gem.

Dear Marie:

It looks like the women are taking over that magazine back there. First it was Carolyn Palmer, now an other woman has taken over.

Well you wanted to know if there was a reason for not sending you some money. There's only one, I don't have it right now. I'll send you some as soon as I get it, you may have to wait till fall, that's when the hunters come and I get their money.

They used to not get worried till I was three or four behind, now I'm only two or three and your getting worried, that's just like a woman.

You ask if you could be of any further assistance, well I live alone out here in the mountains, and ----- Well maybe we better forget that part. But if you got a few thousand dollars laying around back there I could use it.

I'll thank you for your cooperation to, and I'll send you some money when I get it.

My dear Bob,

Hello! Although I have not met you knowing you are a good friend of Anie's is more than enough. I am happy to know that you will go to Châteauroux my home town "la plus laide ville de France" says Jean Giraudoux and I agree! you will see by yourself that the town does not have much to offer, indeed! I am only happy as you will have the opportunity to meet my parents and my sister Claudine. I am writing them today to tell them that they should expect to see you shortly. The address is ← 23, avenue de Paris, Châteauroux, Indre. téléphone 8-81. Please, go and visit them as I know they will be very pleased to meet an American friend of mine. Les amis de mes amis ou amies sont mes amis et sont ceux de mes parents également. My father may suggest something to you when you talk to him. He understands English but has not had much practise, so do not speak too fast if you speak in English! My sister Claudine (19)

Monsieur et Madame BOULAOE - PÉRI GOIS

just finished the Lycee and speaks English pretty well I think.
My mother is a very, very good cook and I know she will be delighted to have you for déjeuner et diner. You may even spend a few days at home as long as you do not mind sleeping au gravier. I know my parents will be very happy to have you stay for a few days, so please do not be shy and accept their invitation. You may visit a few interesting places in Châteauroux and outside with my sister Claudine who will be pleased to meet you and practise
her English.

I hope you will have a very, very nice stay in France and at my parents. I hope to meet you when you come back to the U.S.A. and you will give me your impressions of France and the French. O.K.?

Bon séjour et bon voyage.

mon cher Robert,

Je ne sais pas si tu recevras jamais cette lettre
mais je l'espérerai. Mais je sais ceci — je peux sentir (vraiment) ou au moins avoir la sensation
même que tu es maintenant en traversant l'Europe. En anglais on l'appelle "sympathique".
N'importe — je peux bien imaginer ta joie
et surtout le remplissement de ta destinée.

J'ai reçu ta carte et ta lettre — je t'aime au moins pour m'avoir envoyé quelque chose. Quel plaisir de recevoir tes nouvelles ! Tu me manques beaucoup — je ne peux pas te dire.

Probablement tu n'as pas remarqué
mais ta carte, monsieur — il faut me tutoyer ! N'est-ce pas que nous sommes encore plus que les "collègues" ?

Peut-être tu as déjà quitté Châteauroux.
As-tu reçu mon télégramme ? Je sais bien que les Boulade-Périgois sont charmants. Je veux les voir un jour.

Je vais envoyer cette lettre à Rome.
Peut-être elle y restera toujours.

Je te fais mes amitiés,

Dear Robert,

Hi - how are you? Needless to say you're missed around here but I wouldn't dare say "wish you were here" because I wish I were there. After you left I got terribly depressed because if I had known then what I know now, I would have been on that plane to France. Someday my day will come. You have been fortunate.

I'm sure the weather has been perfect there - very hot and humid here with thunderstorms.

I want you to realize - if this ever gets to you - that if I can do anything for you from this end you know you can count on me.

I can imagine what wonders you have seen and are seeing. I cannot wait to hear you relate all your experiences. Your chaise à toi is waiting - as if you could give a good damn.

As I said, if this ever gets to you I hope it finds you just as happy as you related in your first letter. I think of you all the time and miss you very much.

Love,
Annie

Dear Bob -

Now I understand why you wrote on extremely thin paper -
I just called the post office to see how much postage to put on a letter to you - so I'll try to write small & say lots on one sheet.

We were very glad to get your letter to know that you landed safely at your destination. Your card & letter both came together. Your room sounds sort of 18th Century.

Walter & I didn't know that you had two families in Orangethats fine

I'm glad your flight was good excepting for the storm.
Where was your heart - in your throat during the storm?

I just couldn't get at this letter over the weekend
we were busy with griefs the weather was ideal - on the cool side of a hot one. The nights are really cool.

I sent a check to Earl for $35. to cover most of the cost of your film & bills. how much more did it cost?

Your room ^{at the hotel} sounds very interesting

Eleanor & Joy were here & I read your letter to them
they loved it.

Russ gets home every weekend. He looks good.
His work sounds like a U.P.A. government job
"nothing to do and all day to do it in."

we haven't heard from Don since he saw your plane off and I haven't had time to write either.
I got a letter from a lady in Maryland that stayed here last summer for two nights - she and her husband want to come this next Friday & Saturday nights.

I hope you can "absorb" all that you are seeing and hearing. I am so sorry that you didn't get the radio I sent. I haven't heard a thing about the package yet.

We had rain last week and now the golf courses
are beautiful again. Starting to cut grass again.

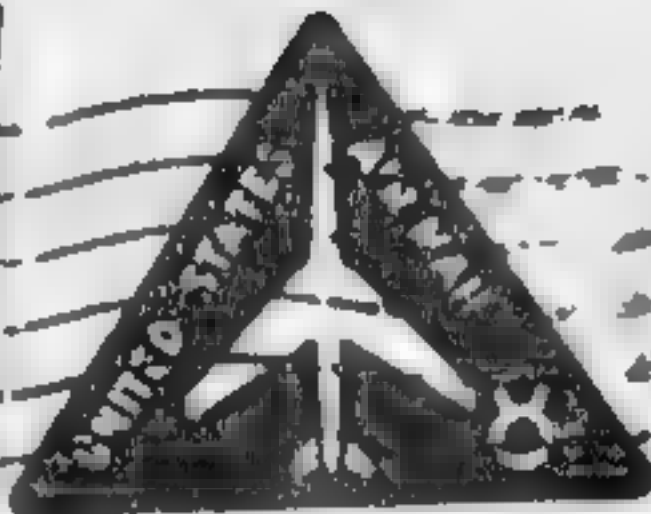

Reg will soon be leaving for Bermuda with a traveling family that we have.

I can't think of anything else that is worth writing about so I'll quit and take this to the post office when I go to the bank.

Enjoy every minute of your trip. The only thing I wish you get a little sleep. You'll enjoy it better. I have to add that just. I wouldn't be Ma if I didn't.

Love

mon cher Robert,

This just may turn out to be a rather incomprehensible type of letter because I was so interested in what you had to tell me in your letter that I was nearly killed five times coming back here to the dept. I suppose I should also add that I was trying to read it as I walked - so I suppose one could say I didn't obey stop signs or traffic lights. However, I made it here (in one piece) All I can say about you is - Que de merveilles! I'm so glad that you got to Châteauroux to see the B-Ps, and very happy that all goes well.

You realize, of course, that you're missing quite a lot here - mass murders, race riots, 90° temps, Lucie's wedding, etc. But yet I can't lower myself to say "wish you were here" because I wish I were there. Anne-Marie heard from her parents (and you) and sent me the letter to read. You really impressed them and you are sans doute "très gentil". You won't believe this, but on Sat. when A-M was here in DC we telephoned her parents. Her mother talked to both of us and

-that's when I got the above quotation.
Needless to say, A. M. and I had a ball. I had not seen her for 5 years or more and we had so much catching up to do. Now, after spending time with Anne-Marie's family you can see la Comtesse. Dottie has asked about you and if you had gone to see her "friend" (Did you say you'd send her a carte?)
I asked for a forwarding address for 2 reasons.
First, of course, I wanted to write and return your kindness. Secondly, it's important you tell me what courses you'd like to have (teach) in the fall. By the way, Ausman finally

Bob, Si, Robert, you don't know how great it is to hear from you. Je me manques beaucoup
Keep having lots of fun and write soon.

FIRST FOLD

Dear Si,

Hi. Read the enclosed air-letter first - this is just sort of supplementary.

If you ever get to Rome you might go to Amer. Express (Piazza di Spagna) where a letter waits - or if you return to conquer Paris once more try 11 rue Scribe. Most people can't get their friends to write - I wrote but had no address 'til now. I bought a very expensive map of Paris and one of France. I located rue du Sommerard where you stayed. What a thrill! Dottie helped me locate it. She and John thought I was lonely and decided to fix me a grand dinner Tuesday night (barbequed spare ribs etc) at my apartment. It was ready when I got there.

How did you find Claudine B-P? Anne-marie told me that when the family was told to expect you Claudine went out and brought canned fruits etc because that's what Americans eat (as opposed to fresh). After dinner then what? Mr. B-P said you were planning to pass by Pau. I haven't heard anything from Juda since before you left. Please check on her for me. Kathy Val. just sent me a card.

II

I wrote to her in Les Alpes-Maritimes.

I'm storing up a lot of happenings around here to tell you about. But I hope you realize (or it should be understood) that if there's anything I could do for you on this end do not hesitate to tell me. It would be a pleasure.

Your first letter was great. I was so tickled to hear from you, and I got back the pictures I took at Cannes. Perhaps you'd want them for your scrapbook.

I really can't believe you've been gone almost two weeks. I'm sure the experiences are worth two lifetimes. I envy you.

When you see John you must say hi for me. I really liked that guy and hope he didn't hate me too much. Also my best to Fiddy.

Got to go now. Each night before you fall asleep do you hear that little voice floating across the ocean saying "Bon soir et dors bien"? You should.

Love,

Amie

Mon cher Robert,

Merrie isn't in today so guess who is sitting desk? You're right. And I just got this (whoops) terrific thought that when you get back here you must be de-briefed like the astronauts. Wouldn't you like that? You see, it's obvious that you are so full of impressions, being as impressionistic as you sois, so thus therefore I got this fab idea. We have arranged for a horde of magnetophones to undertake this delicate operation (similar to that of La Dernière bande by Beckett) etc etc. Needless to say, you will probably spend the hiver in a cocoon of magnetic tape.

It is a present 2:15 pm and I haven't been excused by the teacher to go get my lunch so Miss Peaden has just volunteered to go get me some. She's nice and I'm starved.

The bureau just isn't the same without your essence or does existence precede? Ich weiss nicht. There's a private joke going around the dept. about the chairman--chairman Mao Tse-Tung, of course. Did he or did he not swim? Our own chairman, Jao, got new glasses and wanted our approval or dis. I gave him a check-minus.

How's the weather over there anyway? By the sounds of your last letter you might be a little cold--or perhaps that's just a woman's opinion (the weather in France remember is cool--as reported two weeks ago by several crochity old ladies) Aren'tt lectrick typewriters great??? I'm doing so well. Anyway, not to sound motherly (nor fatherly either) you should have taken your galeshessonny. Also, me. And the star-spangled banner forever shall wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Dear Bob,

Wed - Aug 10th - 1966

We received your 2nd letter and I haven't ^{decided} Call you
"Wrong way, Corrigan," as far as train goes.

We had a welcome rain last evening and thru the night. It has been very warm here.

Over last weekend I had a man & wife stay for two nights and a family of 5 that stayed 3 nights. So, the pictures on the two cards you sent are beautiful. I'm sure that you are seeing some beautiful sights.

We haven't heard from Don since a week before you left Washington. I hope he is still in New York.

Russ was home again last weekend. Yesterday and today he is to be at Aberdeen, Md. getting a Viet Nam Indoctrination and Survival Course. He feels that his stay at Bainbridge is temporary.

Eleanor and Jay were to go up to their Cabin on Monday and stay a few days. Eleanor is just "as clear as a bell."
It's a pleasure to talk to her this summer.

How are you making out financially? Got enough?
Your room rates sound very reasonable. How 'bout
the cost of meals?

there is to be a busload of Campers, about 40, coming tomorrow for golfing.

It is very hard to think of anything to write about. Nothing exciting or unusual seems to be happening, just routine golfing.

Kennie Atkinson went to Ocean City Sunday & Monday - Russ helped us out Sunday morning. and Walter took over yesterday.

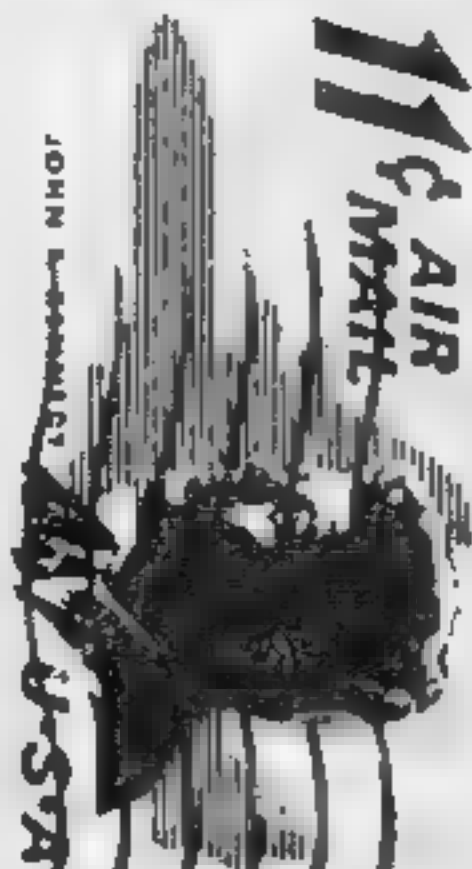

My friend, Vime Renger, now holds the course record for this year, he got a 32 and 35 making a 67 for 18 holes. He was like a little boy, he said that was his best golf game in 14 years.

Seaside's league only has two more weeks of play - that means summer is nearly over - it doesn't seem possible. When you think that it will be three weeks thru Friday that you left Washington -
Have fun - take care - Keep both eyes open etc etc

Dear Bob - I held your value a few days longer to save you some money. I hope you got it in time. My girlfriend came back and was there when I returned she is a real chatter but I am speaking more French now than ever. This word is so funny that it is hard to get

SECOND FOLD

August 11, 1966

Dear Bob,

Where do I begin? First I must let you know that I am so HAPPY for you. With your departure I think half of me went with you and thus I have not been able to account for myself since you left. This was not the summer for me and there is no one that I would have wanted to see in Europe this summer more than you. All I can say is that I am so Happy for you. Come to think of it I already said that.

Guess what I was accepted!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I could go on forever (!). But I was rejected first. I went over to see Dr. Stout last week and he said for me to call him this morning. For a week I did not sleep, feel, or eat. I knew that this was all or nothing. I think you know how much this means to me (I called my parents and I don't think they did-nothing has change). To say that I am relieved would be an understatement.

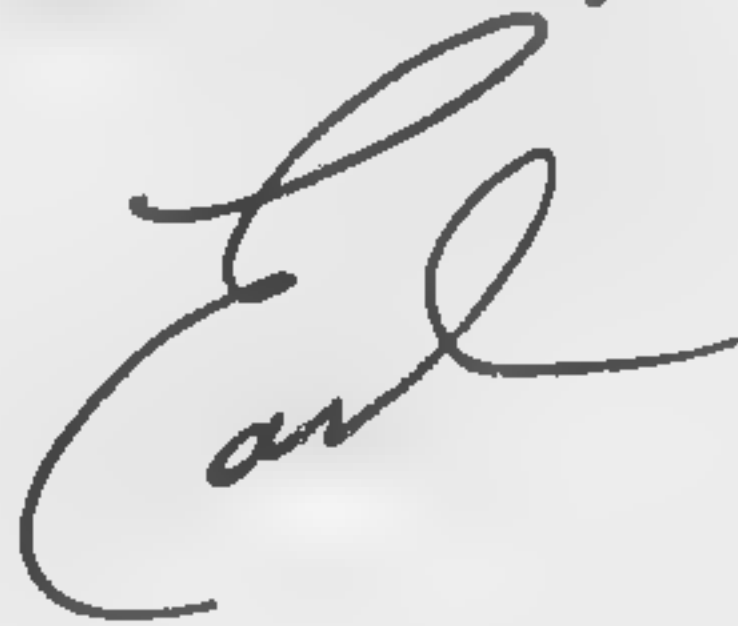

Your roommate is now an employee of the Hill. For two weeks I have been working the afternoons and early evenings for Senator McIntyre, N. H., who is up for re-election in the fall. I love it. I have met some interesting people and work with a Capital Hill Miss Burlingame. Her name is Doris Brassell and Bob wait till you hear the stories that I have to tell you. She has to be one of the funniest people in the world. A real trooper. She has the inside dope on every scandal for the past twenty years and everything is confidential - Even lunch! The staff are wonderful and the work is enjoyable. At the moment I am a volunteer and because his staff is understaffed and the interns will be leaving in the Fall I hope that maybe I can get a more permanent job. Even if I can't the time has not been wasted. Bob, this means so much to me. And for the first time in my life I am somewhat related to my field. And you know how important this is.

I have had so little spare time since you left that I can not believe that you will be returning in a few weeks. Don't worry- I will be glad to see you. And you must meet confidential Doris. Her favorite expression is "I'm exhausted". Last weekend went to Harper's Ferry and this weekend am going to the Virginia coast. Then I have Bobbie 's wedding to attend the following week. This you may not like but I am flying to New Hampshire two days after your return and will be back the following Tuesday. Bill is returning with me for a few days before he returns to school. I hope that you do not mind but this I think is best. I do hope that you agree.

Bob there is so much news but I must close for now. Awaiting your return with open ears and I know that everyone says hello. The catalogue is subjected to a daily account at their request. By the way we now have switchboard direct dialing to the Watergate Wine and Beveredge Shop. This could be disaster. But Foggy Bottom really cares. Have a wonderful sojourn and I hope you get this letter. Your brother,

Dans le cas où le présent règlement concerne une exportation ayant fait l'objet d'un crédit de mobilisation de créances nées sur l'étranger, nous vous rappelons que les fonds reçus doivent rester bloqués jusqu'à l'échéance du billet de mobilisation s'y rattachant à moins que le banquier mobilisateur, mis en possession des fonds, ne réclame le retour dudit effet.

En application des dispositions prises à cet égard par la Banque de France, nous vous serions obligés de nous préciser :

Si la présence rentrée de fonds correspond à une mobilisation non échue à ce jour et, dans l'affirmative, le nom du banquier mobilisateur, le montant et la date d'échéance du crédit de mobilisation.

Si le blocage auquel il est fait allusion ci-dessus doit avoir lieu :

a) chez le banquier mobilisateur,

b) chez notre Etablissement.

Dans le premier cas (a), nous ferons immédiatement le nécessaire pour que les fonds soient versés à la banque mobilisatrice indiquée. Dans le second cas (b), les fonds ne pourront être mis à votre disposition qu'après réception à nos guichets d'une attestation du banquier mobilisateur indiquant que la provision nécessaire au paiement de l'effet de mobilisation correspondant à ce règlement a été constituée sur ses livres par le débit de votre compte.

Sans précisions ni instructions particulières de votre part, nous considérerons que l'exportation donnant lieu au présent règlement n'a pas fait l'objet d'un crédit de mobilisation de créances nées.

Dear Bob -

We haven't heard from you for over a week so I am taking a chance on this address again. Russ got your Card and you had received one letter from home, by this time you should have the second one.

There isn't much news around here excepting fatal accidents on the highways I'll tell you a few of the worst one

Last Wednesday a 17 y old Jernyn boy bound and set fire to his 7 y old sister, she died the next morning. Thursday afternoon we had a tornado - our party up on the golf course blew over into Bill's field - Thursday about 5 pm - a Molinaro ^{boy} and a Tolleson boy 17 y old ^{lost from C'dale} had an accident on the road out of C'dale toward Homedale - the Tolleson boy was killed Saturday about 4:30 pm. down by the Italian Cemetery two ^{boys} C'dale boys - John Evans and John Connor had a head-on collision with a truck hauling flagstone the Evans boy was killed he was completely mangled. ^{John Connor is Sara Connor's son} she used to be in my pinocle club. about 11:30 Sat nite a 2 car crash at Chapman Lake Corners and a trooper was left to for dead and was finally discovered to be alive - oh me I hope there are no more.
Scranton had a "flash flood" on Tuesday afternoon - we didn't get it.

The Press-Radio & TV had a tournament here yesterday, there were 13 of them.

This is a beautiful day today. The grass in the course is a beautiful green now after the rains we have been having.

We had a letter from Earl - he still is living a confused life.

I got your package that Earl sent back to me. The big barn on the hill is being painted today - at least the roof will be - I don't know how much more will be done today. How the time is flying - so it 4 weeks you have been in France?

Russ gets home every weekend so far. He has a job that he works at after hours. The nights are hard for him to take as there is nothing to do.

Mom

Dear Bob -

Welcome Home - (I hope you are there)

Today is the day you are to leave France. I'm sure you have had a fabulous time and will never forget it. I'm glad you could make the trip.

I'm wondering if you might want to come home for the long weekend this weekend in fact - I'm including your suitcase just in case.

I'm writing this in a hurry to catch the mailman. I haven't much to write about but just that "I'd drop you a line".

Don expects to come for the weekend. At least I haven't heard to the contrary.

Russ even gets Labor Day off - just like govt employees - everybody gets it off but Ma & Pa so all of you have to come to us.

Really, I can't think of a thing to write about

Hope to see you soon,

Dear Bob,

We have finally settled down in an apartment that leaves much to be desired. I think there are more cockroaches here than in Asquith's place. We looked for a week and finally got tired and took this place.

We both are taking 18 hours made up of 4 Econ 1 International finance and a calculus course. it is going to be pretty rough. I am still looking for a job and so is the Greek. I don't think we will be able to keep it very long, though.

I hope you will let me know when you get into town. I think I remember the 8th - 10th are one of those dates.

Don doesn't have enough room.

Well, just a little under nineteen more months to go. I arrived here supposedly to attend OCS. (I didn't withdraw earlier because I would have lost an 8-day leave and $41.04 in travel money.). To say the least I am fed up with the great society, pat nuggent, regimentation, and the Army. To be brief and to the point, I refused (as only I could) to be signed in to OCS. This caused a major commotion amongst the old troopers. "You mean you don't want to be an officer?"

So, now I'm in a building full of Puerto Ricans, high school dropouts and profession flunkies; -awaiting new orders.

The Big Chief around here is trying his (ignorant) damndest to send all the OCS "dropouts" to Viet Nam. Are you kidding me?

To delay this serious threat to my (somewhat limited) comfortable living, I might apply half-heartedly for a direct commission - this means probably being assigned in the states while they make up their minds. If I have less than a year left when they decide. Then I've accomplished my mission.

However all looks dim. Run with all of your might in the opposite direction from the draft-board. Damn this Army.

There is little of anything good or exciting to tell you; most depressing.

Life seems to be "shitting" on me somehow or other. Also on our old football team.

Keep enjoying Washington living as best you can + pray (or hope) that I get to a comfortable station instead of V.N.

Dear Bob -

Did you get over the shock of the wedding news? Yet and that you are to be a best man? and I guess Don is to be an usher as it looks now.

Russ is going to call you from Bainbridge to tell you that there is to be a rehearsal ^{Oct 7 at 8 pm} Friday night - Can you make it? if not - someone can rehearse for you and relay the instructions to you. Things are shaping up pretty good. There will be a reception and dinner afterwards at the Crystal Line at Crystal Lake.

Walter said that you could come Friday ok - your classes wouldn't interfere so that's right - let us know your final decision and approximate time you'll get into Seaton.

We haven't heard from Ruth & Don yet - Lillian called last night that they are coming.

I'll enclose your bus fare.
I don't know about a present from you & Alon - I suggested an electric frying pan - if this is what both of you would like "we can buy it for wholesale". Let me know what you decide. If you think something else would be better don't be afraid to say so.

Well - I'll write a note to Alon
now and then get busy doing something.

I'll be waiting to hear from you.
As it looks now - Russ and Ann are going to be in a trailer - if that will help your gift decision.

You'll learn that you must never be surprised at the news
you get from home - never a dull moment.

Quelle joie de recevoir votre

Il va vous accompagner, n'est-ce

Je ne peux qu'attendre de voir

C'est merveilleux que vos photos ^{soient} ~~sont~~

Nous avons eu une grande célébration pour fêter son anniversaire dimanche passé. Elle continue d'être l'enfant la plus adorable du monde!

Quelle surprise que votre frère s'est marié! Je suis sûre que mon Monsieur Jamon a bien rempli ses fonctions aux noces hier. Le temps était idéal pour des noces, n'est-ce pas? J'espère que votre week-end a été en tout plus agréable.

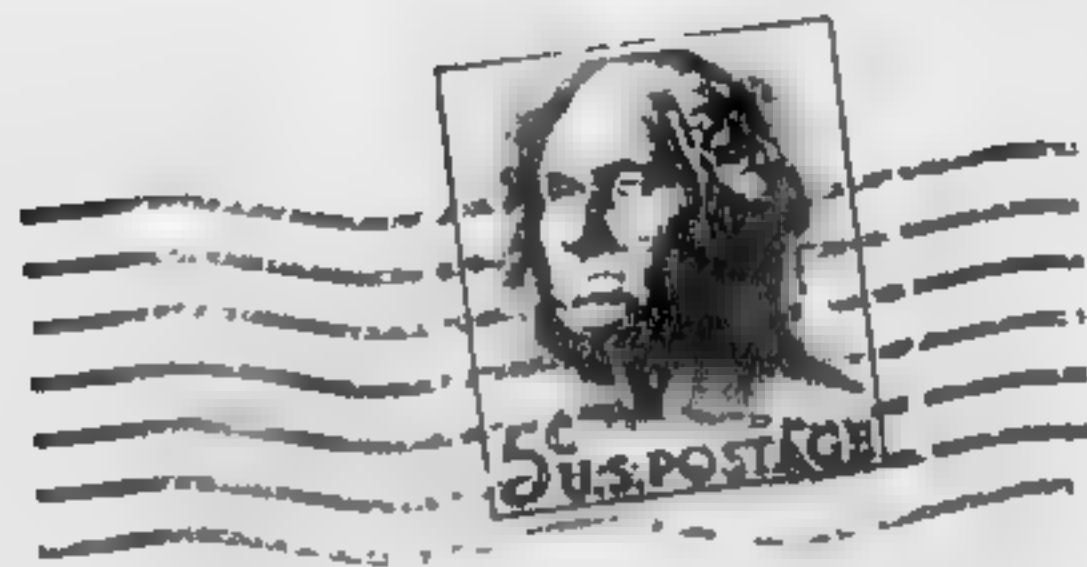

Je suis heureux que vos cours

allent si bien. Vous avez raison de⁴ vous appliquer à recevoir de bonnes
notes ce semestre-ci et remettre
la thèse au semestre suivant, j'en suis sûre. D'ailleurs, il faut qu'il
y ait un feu ardent pour que vous
puissiez (votre sujet favori) bien

J'attendrai des renseignements sur le sujet du moment de votre arrivée

Oct - 18th

Dear Bob,

Well - it's almost two weeks since you were home for the 'big affair'. Have you got rested yet - you looked like the last row of summer when you left here on Sunday.

I have had one of the worst colds that I have ever had - Walter had one a couple of weeks ago and this last week I had a dilly.

Well - Russ and Ann are getting settled a little bit - it has taken a bit of fixing to get the trailer ready to live in - the refrigerator didn't work - the drain had to be worked on - etc. They came home on Wednesday night and packed things they needed first and left early Friday Morning and came back on Saturday night and took another load and left at Monday noon - so we won't see them now unless they have to come back for something they have forgotten. They have taken the Jeep down for the winter.

the Rambler just plain wore out finally.
of course it wasn't in the best of condition
after Grandpa took no care of it.

There has been dozens and dozens of flocks of geese going south, yesterday and today. We had some sleet that turned to rain about 4 pm today so I guess maybe the geese know the right thing to be doing.

I had the X-ray of my kidney taken today so I'll soon know what, if anything, is wrong there. I don't feel there is anything very serious wrong with it I think it was affected by my infected bladder. I have heard of a number of people that have had this same thing - Louise had it in August. Must be a new virus bug floating around.

Wed Am

Today is what one would call a rainy day - I wonder what the geese

are doing today - bad flying weather.

Robert Kennedy is to be in Scranton today - he gave advance notice as to what he wanted when he came - crowds of people guaranteed! imagine - it surely is a stormy day - I hope his promised crowds make their appearance for him - I wonder how much the "Crowds" will be paid to show face? Walter said he hoped it rained all day and it looks as tho his wish came true.

The golf course is the most beautiful green you have ever seen - between no. 1 tee and the well in the middle of the fairway it is magnificent.

I don't know when to get started at today, I'm sure there won't be any golfers - I'll get digging in some corner somewhere.

My pet squirrel is out in the tree watching me.

the lovely wedding gift. It certainly will be useful and will always remind me of

Nov. 12, 1966

Dear Bob,

Yes, I'm making a Carbon Copy again - I'm getting "lazier & lazier".

I don't have much to write about but somehow I'll get some words together.

Today is not very cold but it is sunny and the golfers are extremely scarce this morning. Its hard to sit around and wait for someone to come.

This week has been quite warm and rainy and the grass has been growing "just like summertime". Walter cut greens and fairways here last Thursday this is the latest he has ever cut grass - Nov. 10. The nightwalkers were out yesterday morning we had quite a storm the night before.

Russ and Ann were coming home this weekend - Russ had the 11th off but he had to stand duty today and tomorrow so they Couldn't Come - too bad because it would have been a long week end for them. I imagine the day are kind of long for Ann. They have things pretty well settled I guess. Swindlehursts were down a week ago - they said the trailer is very comfortable but that the base and surrounding community is really quite depressing.

I didn't see it but Elizabeth's picture and engagement notice were in the Times the other night. I guess that wedding must be going to be the social event of the season in Rochester. At the last ^{report} ~~report~~ there are to be 250 (or better) guests - three attendants - reception at the Country Club and of course - married in the Catholic Church. I feel kind of sorry for Louise - she seems to be sort of left out in the cold - after all it is her daughter that is getting married. (Meow!)

Mr. Swain - Alona's dad - died a week ago. He was cremated - that gives me the shudders.

Let's see now - my broken toe is finally mended - it isn't sore now. My infected bladder all cleaned up very quickly as for the operation for my dropped bladder - that is the aftermath of childbirth - that will be after Thanksgiving when business is entirely finished. I haven't made a definite date as yet. Other than all these things I guess I'm normal.

Pennsylvania's election was very pleasing to all of us. I guess finally some of the people are waking up to see what the Democratic machine is doing to our country. - the whole country upsets the applecart.

You surely are in the bird business. Did you get a for sale sign made up yet? Maybe you could donate a pair to Lady Bird or Linda Bird or some other Bird.

You asked how permanent Russ's stay at Bainbridge is - no one knows -
we just keep hoping that he'll stay there.
No. Ann isn't working, excepting that she baby-sat the other night - when Russ had to work - for some other trailer people.

Inflation caught up with you too - I see you raised your price for your star-gazer idol that sat and gazed into your eyes for an hour - poor girl - you're mean.

Yea we got your check last month.
What happened to your pumpkin pie recipe I thought you had it - I'll write that & the Custard pie too.
I found that Canned pumpkin is so much thicker than - home prepared be sure not to use too much pumpkin - next time I'll skimp on the measurement.
I wouldn't be bothered with fresh pumpkin

Well - I've run dry on words

Seventeen to go! That's seventeen too many. Maybe I should start an Army magazine for soldiers with only seventeen months to go. Yes, I shall. I can call it Handum, excuse the pun - Seventeen.

The lowering of the draft that you mentioned was merely an ineffectual political move for last weeks elections. I believe the "war-hawk" Democrats are "losing" ground. A good, but not a great, election. One (Handy Partner) and his party cannot go on sacrificing young American bodies to the Red Dragon in the name of peace. Maybe the Marxians are right. Peace is War, War is Peace. American statesmen do not seem satisfied with world politics unless we are involved in killing, and that's enough on that!! (For Now).

You are also correct on your assumption that I have "successfully managed to remain in VA instead of VN." (For Now). I wouldn't be surprised to be re-ordered to Viet Nam next spring for a short tour. Then I could stop off in Bangkok and mouche off of Tina's mother. "Arr Loo!!"

Your "little Brother Russ" will have relatively little to worry about in V.N. save boredom, social diseases, heat, malaria, and a rash caused by constant sweating.

Should I say "congratulations" on Russ's wedding of October 8, '66? That does seem so young. But then again, one of the Powells had to do it. The Hawaiian Punch sounds familiar as J.C. Needhams parents don't believe in booze at a wedding. I've been waiting for ages for them to change their minds - I just couldn't go through such a day "dry."

Brother Daylord has been so very kind as to write a letter explaining, as only the Daylord could, the events of ZAX house. He is living with Bro. NIX, so with such influence, he should settle down for a long stay in State College.

Thank You for AC's Texas address. I didn't know she was in Texas. As for Dearly I shall have to drop him a line and give him the devil for not writing.

Rumor has it that Brother Weed is going to put a gold band on his finger (3rd left), sign all kinds of legal papers, and live with Margie Hines.

Daylord has completely severed relations with his hometown (pretty nice body chemistry major) wife. He complains of an inactive "peter" - whatever in the world that is? The House has decided to buy

Fort Eustis, Virginia

(probably on credit) a color TV set. Aside from Brother "Banjo", a color TV set would be our only visible signs of integration. Speaking of color and integration, I hope Washington is treating you and Earl right.

So you brought a pair of Catholic Australian Zebra Finches, and right away she got pregnant. Maybe you should put her on the pills, or feed her salt peter. Earl must be savagely happy with the birds!!

In picking your graduate (doctorate) school - Harvard would be nice because I could come visit you - Columbia too. My brother Ronald has been toying with the idea of Harvard Graduate Business School next fall, but I'm afraid the "call to the wild" will draw him into the young executive set in June complete with Friday martinis and weekends at the club.

My younger brother David has applied to Tufts University, College of (Electrical) Engineering. I do feel that with three Powers' holding six degrees from Tufts that he was dissuaded from MIT - originally his first choice. I just hope he can spell better than "me."

(4)

I am not surprised that Sally is in S. A. somewhere as she called Jan before she left.

Sally and the Pan Am People. We were rather snobbish to them. But then, I couldn't figure out Boy from girls.

I must admit your comparison of Ben Franklin / Brother Banjo shall remain vivid in my mind.

Banjo reminds me of Oscar Wilde's famous statement: "yet each kills the thing he loves the most. (this isn't word for word, but I'm so tired it must be excused).

Some do it with the pen,
other with the sword
etc etc.

The coward does it with a kiss,

Banjo does it with his right fist!

Remember those African messages that Banjo used to "beat out" in the sleeping room!! Cowa-bonga!! Kingfish!!

I am doing Administrative work now, and may end up teaching (stop smirking) Transportation at the Army Transportation Center, yup, right here at Fort Eustis. Janet, needless to say, is most happy with my present assignment. I've been up there several times and plan on another trip to the first weekend in December. It's less than six hours by auto. O.C. is about three via Rt. 95. Sooo!!! when the phone rings - Smile! It might be me.

I do want to get us together you, Earl, Me - the 5 Catholic Finches for a weekend some time. I feel the Army has robbed me of my most exciting years, those immediately following graduation.

I make the most, though, of what I can.

I have a small library in my wall locker. I've visited some of colonial Williamsburg (worth your trip down here). Williamsburg is about twenty-minutes away. William & Mary has a ZAX chapter which, naturally, I've visited.

Such a coincidence I tell you - a party was going on while I arrived. Of course I picked a Friday evening for my sojourn. I've managed to tour the Yorktown battle fields. Splendid. You'd be proud of the job the USDI does in maintaining the grounds.

My dear Bob,

I wonder how every-thing is with you. It seems ages since I saw you last (at Russ's wedding) and so long since your last letter arrived.

What a wonderful vacation you had on foreign soil. So much to see - so much to enjoy - so much to learn.

I didn't know where your traveling was taking you but the very fact that you were on your way - seeing new sights - covering ground you had not known ^{to} before - ground and rights - that thrilled me so in 1909!

What an impression they made on me in those far away days of long ago!

I live them over every time I see a picture of a gallery I longingly visited in those golden days.

Rome and its glories - Florence and its beauties - Venice and its
- charms - How I loved it all and how I gloried in the wonder of the sculpture, the paintings, the majesty of the ~~pure~~ architecture. Oh how marvellous
it all was to me!

It comes! ^{Ill}Waving along the Highways!
There is so much I want to ask you about - so much about Paris,
about Naples, about the archways, the bridges. Oh I'm full of questions and how I long to hear your impressions.

I loved Italy so - I wonder if you spent much time there.

Happy Thanksgiving

Dear Bob,

I have the enlargement that you sent in a place of honor right next to the picture of my mother and since all of the Slobs at work have pictures of their wives on their desks, I thought I would put it on mine.

How is school? Things are going better here but I am still anxious to get back to D.C.

I hope that you will be coming up some time around or before Christmas. I haven't got around to seeing Don yet but I imagine he is well occupied too. He sent me a catalogue of the Econ books available through Holt - - - and I haven't had a chance to thank him yet.

When you get here you can give me some advice as to which French course you think I have a chance in and which will do me the most good. I am pretty sure that we will be able to take French next semester but not the equivalent of 3 or 4. We have to take some literature course I think.

Hope to see you in a few weeks.

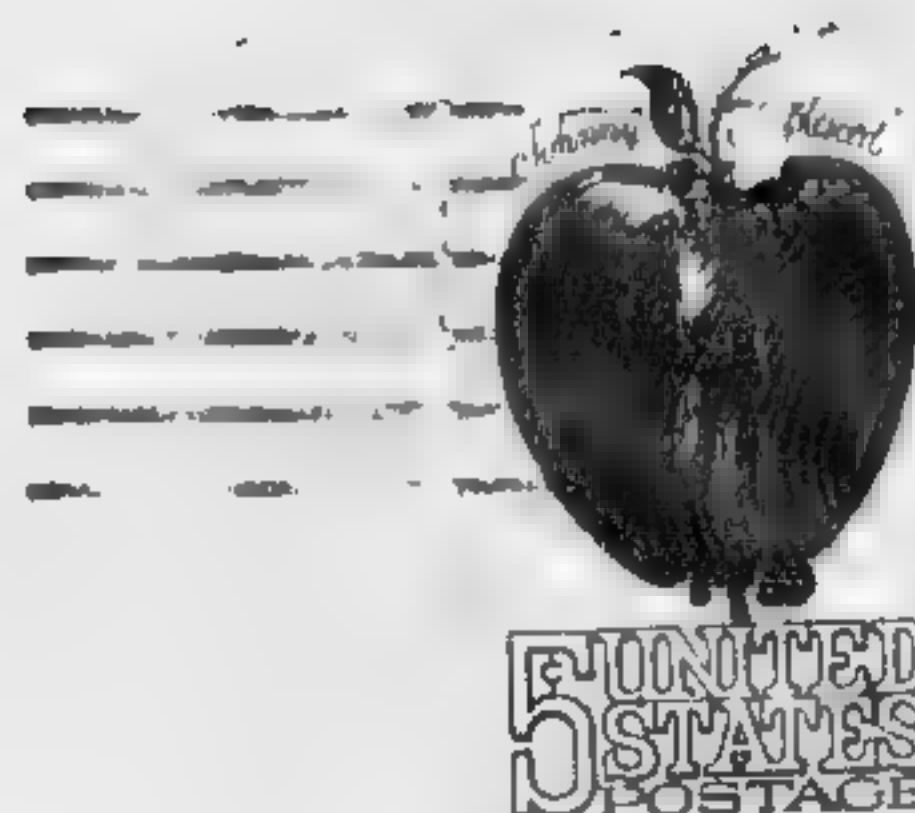

Sincerely,

John

Dear Dr. Frey:

Thank you very much for your cooperation in obtaining the services of Professor Huve and Mr. Robert S. Powell to help in the Local Committee of the Northeast Conference on Teaching Foreign Languages, April, 1967.

I shall use the University address when it is necessary next Spring for me to contact the George Washington University "representatives". And I certainly hope that you, too, will be able to find time in your busy schedule of teaching and department administration to attend some, if not all, of the conference sessions.

Kindest regards.

Dear Bob,

I haven't much to write about since we talked to you.

It is extremely warm - around 60° today more like Easter than Christmas. I was shopping today and the stores were very warm.

Walter still hasn't shot a deer yet - he still has hopes for a doe on Monday and Tuesday.

I hope you understood about "my operation". I don't expect to go for it until around March 1 as I see it now - there are a number of reasons - first is that it is not an urgent affair second - I don't have help now with the cleaning and with skins coming I have to be able to take care of them and third is purely selfish - I'd like to feel well so I can enjoy a day off now and then. This winter - so you now know all about me.

It doesn't seem possible that two weeks from tomorrow night will be Christmas Eve. I think the Winters' are coming to stay over like they have the last two years. Sam isn't coming down for Christmas but Elizabeth is going back to Rochester for New Years.

I am on the committee to entertain my Sunday School Class at the Church next Tuesday, I'll be glad when that is over.

We haven't heard from Don since Thanksgiving. I wonder if he has a job yet.

I hope you have a Happy Birthday. Lets see - You are now ~~an~~ real adult - 23 - my, oh my.

Tuesday 13 Dec 66.

SO - MERRY CHRISTMAS AND, FOR ONE, HAPPY BIRTHDAY.

My ride decided to get lost on NEW YORK AVENUE. Ten-thirty we departed D.C. only to make a wrong turn and end up heading into ANNANDALE, Virginia (at least we were in the right State).

The car (to my disappointment NOT a Ferrari) decided to go "on the BUM" and only after SEVERAL "PIT STOPS" did we arrive in Fort Eustis.

BUT MAY, my troubles NEVER END, as there was a "transient" sleeping in MY BED. Not for LONG. BOOM!!
Crash!!

Well I managed over an hour's sleep before putting in $15\frac{1}{2}$ hrs. of K.P. My hands are still so waterlogged that I'm forced to write holding my (new sexy felt-tipped) pen in my teeth.

Look MA, GREEN CAVATIES!!

So I'm still alive and looking forward to a time when you can be my guests (maybe a cottage on NOVA SCOTIA would discourage all but my dearest friends).

The weekend was very relaxing and helped me in holding my strength throughout my day of agony.

← my pet cockroach was hungry

I WALKED OUT Sunday evening with pleasant memories REVIVED.

I FORGOT MY PART FOR THE TV.
And such entertainment. Carol Channing, the WATERBUG on the wall, and five-and-one-half Australian + Zebra + Finches. Ouy!!

So HUMBUG and other such Christmas greetings
How would you (either one or both) LIKE a pair of ARMY
BOOTS FOR Christmas. It can be arranged.

Oh yes.- on KP. I washed metal trays which were a bit greasy before washing (ARMY SPAGETTI) AND WORSE

AND SO

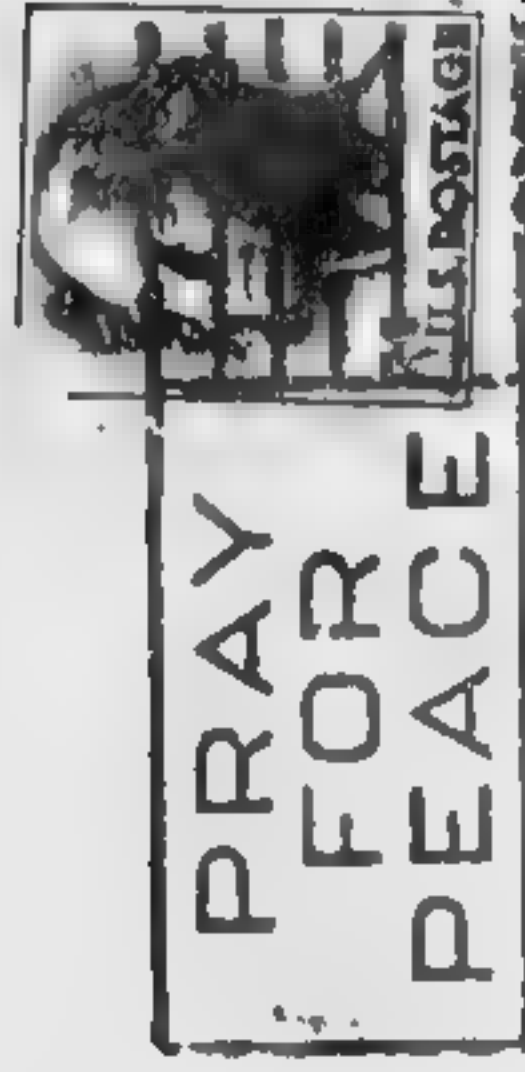

I remain,

your reliable guardian
of truth, JUSTICE, and VIRGINS,

Wednesday 1 AM.

Dear Si,

I'm so glad you came last weekend. I so enjoyed having you here. I must admit though that you didn't seem at all yourself. You seemed so quiet.
I couldn't help thinking that when you left something was bothering
you. Perhaps I'm only imagining all of this but I don't think so. I could easily see that you were a little uneasy on Friday night and even more so at Sully's on Saturday. You didn't seem to open your mouth until someone asked you a question. Maybe I shouldn't have told you that the whole.

evening was going to revolve around a French motif or whatever ~~stays~~.
the motif of Sally's apartment was.
you acted so completely different from what you do ~~was~~ in your own apartment. you were really 2 people - the one the way you are on your own territory and the one you were here last weekend.

Forgive me for saying all of the above if you think it untrue
but I just had to mention it.
Perhaps you can come and spend a few un-~~hectic~~ ^{hazy} there on your spring vacation?

Are you planning to go home ~~on~~ for Easter. I think I'll go home for a few days. I think it would be a lot of fun.

I really can't think of anything else
to say - I've had no news of note since Sunday. Please write and comment on the observations I make on the other side of this page & as Gaylord says "poorly torn badly lined non-bond paper."

Sally talked to Carl ~~and~~ last night so she tells me - she said Frank has returned to Gloucester that certainly was sudden!

Back to my scholarly pursuits!

Dear Bob,

May I take this opportunity to express my formal thanks to you for the various times you have pitched in so eagerly, cheerfully, and capably as a substitute teacher this semester.

I am very sorry that the occasions have had to be so frequent recently. I do hope that the time you have given to the department has not taken away appreciably from your studies or pleasures.

Would you set aside the evening of Saturday, January 28 (last day of registration). I should like to have you and the others who have helped join me for dinner. I shall let you know later the time and place.

Sincerely,

Robert Rygg

Alumni Group to Hold Benefit Art Exhibition

LOADED BRUSHES: Shown above are two of the works to be featured in an April exhibition of of seventeenth and eighteenth-century European masters. At left is "Apostle" by Jacob Jordaens, in Detroit and at right is an oil sketch of a recumbent sybil by Francois Boudier in Stockholm.

Columbia will host a benefit art exhibition of oil sketches of seventeenth and eighteenth century masters in April to provide scholarships for students in the Department of Art History and Archaeology.

The exhibition, entitled "Masters of the Loaded Brush—Oil Sketches from Rubens to Tiepolo," will consist of paintings from public and private art collections throughout Europe and the United States.

According to Professor of art history Rudolf J. Wittkower, chairman of the department, the exhibition will be sponsored by the Advisory Council of the Department of Art History and Archaeology, an association of alumni from Barnard and Columbia.

Plans for the exhibition began about a year and a half ago, Professor Wittkower stated yesterday. The University provided the department with a loan of a "few thousand dollars," but since then, plans have continued without further assistance from the University.

Professor Wittkower explained that funds for the exhibition would come from two previews, scheduled for early April. He anticipated that approximately 1200 people would attend the previews.

He also noted that the the last exhibition, held in 1963, approximately 20,000 people viewed the showing. He said he hopes that the exhibition, to be held April 6-29, will attract as many people this spring.

Professor Wittkower affirmed that special precautions will be taken at the showing, which will be held at M. Knoedler & Co., Inc., a Manhattan art gallery, noting that "we'll have special guards in all likelihood."

In addition to sponsoring the exhibit, the Department of Art History and Archaeology will also publish a catalogue detailing the works on display.

Dear Bob,

Hi! First - did you get the "important" letter that you addressed to yourself before you left here?

I have just written my Christmas thank you's - I have never been so late in writing them so I'll just write to you and I'll have all my correspondence up to date except a letter to Aunt Edna - for which there is no hurry.

About Liz's wedding - do let us know definitely if you are going along with us in the gift. - If we all go together I'll take care of the whole thing - money wise. I still think a blender will be nice. I think you should ~~be~~ plan to be in San Antonio as early on Friday as you can make it - ~~what~~ when we leave kind of depends on the weather. Let us know your plans

My gloves surely take care of that bare spot on my wrists - you know,
I'm getting old. And that puzzle - I'll be lucky to have it worked by next Christmas !!!!!/! - - - -

I have finally caught up with myself
in sheet laundering (how do you say that?) I had 22 sheets this week and I went to the laundromat on Monday and washed and dried them
and was back home within two hours - ironed the top sheets and cases that afternoon and made up the beds that night - a day's work I'd say. But that is the way I'll wash them from now on - lots easier.

I could have shot Earl the other night when he made me think that I couldn't put up that 12, - $ $ $
I was losing - oh well -

It was good to talk to you.
Walter and I went fishing up on Mud

Pond yesterday and the one that caught the largest fish was to be taken out to dinner, so, naturally I lost by 1/2 inch so we went down to the Clam House in Keeper Valley and had a bowl of Clam Chowder and 6 doz. Clams after we came out bulging at the seams but it was fun anyway.

It is cold & windy today - too cold for fishing so Walter says - sort must be cold. He has gone over to Michie to get the fairway mower that was repaired - getting ready for spring.

I have reservations for 8 for Fri & Sat nights this weekend so far.

We went down to see Russ and () last Wednesday. That's the first we have seen the trailer. They are very comfortable and cozy. It is amazing how compact it is, they seem to have everything they need to "exist on". I do hope that they are let alone for awhile - Russ has been filling out forms which may mean being transferred somewhere. The base really is sort of in a deplorable state part of it is really deserted. The part where Russ & Ann are is really very clean & neat and not too bad.

He took us for a ride around the base
it must have been 15-20 miles - such a huge area. We left at 7:20 am and were home at 11. Or did I tell you this when you called - I forgot about that.
Well - that's it for now.

Mom

Dear Robert,

Last night succeeded in doing one thing for me - deepening my depression. With this in mind, read the rest of the letter with the kind of level-headedness only you can muster.

Very shortly I'll be leaving here and I am hopeful the extremely short change will be good. But it'll be temporary. I know you said I should not show them I'm down but God, Robert, I really do feel broken. I want to start afresh, do things, etc. but I don't have any "envie". Sure, it'll pass too. But after sitting down this morning and planning this semester out I noticed what's up and what has to be done. Grace a to and your good advice, I wrote to Burk's roommate and cancelled out on that deal. Thesis is due April 28; I want to audit all 3

classes; labs take all day Tues - Thurs. plus getting together w/
you guys (Juda, Marylou) to study.

First I'd like to get your notes
from this semester and I'd like to have them Monday (if it's convenient to you) for I have no time to waste. I have also considered cancelling out on that Astor deal w/ Keefe + Entenza on Monday. How
'bout you? Let me know.

Secondly; I'm only going to work for Ausman when 3.

I want. Remember, this is the month I'll get paid a whopping $87 because of the two overpayments before. Asman was going to pay me in return for time. I think I'll just ask to be paid for the work I do rather than owe him my precious time.

Third thing is that I must learn from you. Looking over your notes is one thing, but you'll probably have to go over things with me at your convenience. Besides auditing the seminars, I hope to audit Grey's 19th C. too.

Please do not forsake me next week. I don't want to interfere w/ your busy schedule but if I could get started on those notes it would be appreciated. Also, let me know if you are still going to NY city

Feb. 3rd and time. We might be able to go up together and you could show me where to go since you're more familiar with it than I am.

The only thing I can do in return is to share what I have learned with you. The folders I made (and anything else for that matter)
is yours.

I hope to see you or hear from you soon. Come over any time. Thanks for a pleasant time.

Dear Mr. Powell,

I talked to Miss Bronte and it is doubtful that it would be possible for me to get my grade changed. My final was a 35.5 and even with a strong curve it still wouldn't be very close. There was a curve, or so I gather, because she said that the grades, in general, were low.

Of course, she was very nice, but there doesn't seem to be any point in pursuing the point any further.

Again, thank - you very much for your help - I do appreciate it.

Sincerely,

February 13, 1967

Dear A. Robert,

I suppose you didn't expect this letter immediately, since I just talked to you. Actually, I really don't know what to say, but I'm not certain how well I expressed myself on the phone. So, pardon me, if I just seem to ramble.

You and Don have a lot to be thankful for - the main thing is each other. He cared (and I suppose still does) very much for you - ask anyone here who has heard him talk about you. Not only does he care, but he's quite proud of you. Unfortunately, you displayed rather an aloof attitude. I, myself, have been the victim of "the Ego Disease," so I can understand somewhat. Also, you've both been victimized by friends (?) opinions. Now, you're both acting like hurt, Spoiled Children. It takes a real man to see his faults, forgive others, and swallow his pride enough to say "I'm sorry." I wonder if either of you are capable.

So, why am I meddling, when it's really none of my business, as my friend Carl would put it! Because I care, and I'm jealous. I've always identified with you, both. Like it or not I've adopted you - Brother! (It's the same with Judy and I) I'm jealous because I feel left out - you're very lucky to have a family of five - I feel (selfishly) I've been cheated with only three to share our house. Show me if you like. You'll probably be influenced enough to do just that. And you do or did yield to others influence even gossip.

 I don't have a problem with friends - I'm just very selective ~~much~~ relatives.

Gratitude and readiness. You got all for nothing. Do not hesitate, when it is asked for, to give your
 all, which, in fact, is nothing,
 for all.

We have to acquire a peace and balance of mind such that we can give every word of criticism its due weight, and humble ourselves before every word of praise.

Goodness is something so simple: always to live for others
 never to seek one's own advantage.

If only I may grow: fatter, plumper,

* Your life is without a foundation
if, in any matter, you choose on your own behalf.

Just a little food for thought my hungry friend.
You see, J. Robert, you have a lot of food, but you continue to starve yourself. I'm not putting all the blame on you, in fact.
I'm giving you credit for possessing a wealth of intelligence and only you can break the ice. Perhaps,
I'm giving you too much credit.
I don't know.

Guess you didn't know I can be serious every so often.

Hope I didn't ruin my crazy image. Anyway, after your last visit, I think your opinion of me went down ten pages. Can't say that I blame
you. The important thing is to form opinions of yourself, Don and then your friends. Please be influenced not only by what you think, but also by what you feel. Or have you no feelings?

Well, Friend, this is getting carried away - and meddling!
So, let's call it an evening. Hope you come to NYC - "Fun City" as it's called - very soon. Also, hope you'll sit down and write a few lines. I realize this is not in Europe, which seems to have more status than York,

but I rather like it here.
Sorry, I'm getting sarcastic
again.

Be Good - My BEST to Pete per usual.

Dear Si,

I hope I get this finished before my photographic debut, but since I don't really know what to say, I somehow doubt that I will tell. I hope you receive this before my arrival in Washington.

As I mentioned on the phone, I wish I had really lots of time to talk to you. I enjoyed your letter very much - it was quite educational. I'm at a loss that we can recognize things (?) in other people, but can't seem to see them in ourselves. As I mentioned before (at PSU) "See, I didn't know you were so deep!" I noticed a few things (things) you added to my script and I'd like to comment on them.

I said that, "You and Don had a lot to be thankful for" - not me. Yes, I am very thankful for both of you. You've both done so much for me - I don't think you'll ever be able to realize how much. I've adopted both of you, but there's no need for you (two) to do the same, so you haven't. Yes, I'd like to be a part of your family, but I know better. You see, you really have no use for me, so there's not a mutual response at your end. Now, don't start mumbling to yourself, because this is true. Don needs my friendship more right now, but as soon as he starts feeling like a giant and ruling the world, the three of us will have good memories.

Sometimes, I feel like I'm being a real thorn in your side. But you can't imagine how grateful I am that you stood by "Miss Knight of PSU." I really needed encouragement. I'd like to think that I could do something for you in return. However, I know you'd never let this happen. I know you rather well, and when you do something in contrast to the person I know. (and I wouldn't call the image "~~stuffy~~" at all.) I can't help but try and step in. Can you understand?

More than once in my lifetime I've felt like a giant and soared like an eagle. (This only brings us back to the "Ego Disease.") However, recently I've learned I'm not a giant nor am I an eagle. - I'm ME! I haven't learned what ME really is, but I searching and I think slowly discovering.

-Yes, I've heard of the show "Pickwick," and if you remember correctly I saw it in London (Abel's in England) and loved it very much. No, I'm not a member of the intellectuals, nor do I want to be, and what people think about plays in NYC doesn't influence me in the least. You might describe me as a "simple world traveler."

 But! I don't want to rule the world, because practically I know I can't. I used to walk with my nose pointed to the ground, but now I look straight up at the beautiful blue and say "Hello World - that a lucky person I am." Remember beauty is in the eyes of the beholder.

One of my favorite lines is "People who need people are the luckiest people in the world." It's really a wonderful feeling to know you're one of the luckiest people in the world. Funny how our taste in songs differs, isn't it?

Sorry but we've just been interrupted by my photographic debut. This guy swears I'm photogenic; I hate to see his face when he gets the proofs.

Sorry, I suppose as though I was in a bad mood. On the phone today. However, I was very melancholy - and not in a bad mood. Sometimes I get very disappointed with people I think highly of (Sorry to end that sentence in a preposition) Perhaps, I just expect too much. What do you expect of people - Don? Me? Earl? Your parents?

For instance, I've been thinking about the last paragraph of your letter. I still don't understand its meaning in relation to you. Maybe, you didn't want me to understand. Maybe, you did. But as I stated before I'm not a member of the intelligentsia - I'm not getting a Master's Degree - OR PHD (feels as they called it in "Puckwick") Now, you think I'm degrading myself. On the contrary, I know I'm quite intelligent, and I don't need a piece of paper to prove it. I'd like to see a piece of paper if I were profoundly interested in one particular subject, but I like everything from nuts to bolts. I want to learn everything about everything, and I get very frustrated knowing this is impossible but I try! This is where you have it all over me, KID! You're going to be a marvelous professor and scholar someday - accomplish everything you set out to do. We both know this.

I can't wait for our P.S. outing in May. Just please don't have one of your usual last minute changes of mind. We would be expecting too much of people, again. I'm also grateful you were so very cordial about my coming to your party on Saturday. I really thought I might be imposing. That's why I invited Andy and Marge - Security.

I seem to be rambling again about nothing, I guess I'm just expressing some of my feelings. I'm really quite sensitive on the inside, but a beautiful hard cored facade on the outside. Terribly overreactive, you know. I keep saying and thinking how much I'd like to talk to you face to face - man to man about our feelings, values, sensitivities etc... but this is so much easier - because if you're going to laugh - I can't see it

Well, it's time to change the records and end this ordeal. See you this weekend. Thank you again. Oops, if you can spare the time to write again, please write a simple letter to a simple person who leads a simple life (I smirk!)

Walter + I have been to 1000 Islands
a couple of times fishing - did you get the Carbondale News and see "our"
picture" !!! We had lots of fun.

I have been having skiers most every weekend even tho the weather hasn't been the best.

Last night and today we are having what I would call a blizzard - Now.
1 pm we must have 14 inches and its supposed to snow the rest of the afternoon maybe 4 inches more. Walter went to Hendrick at midnight and worked till 9 this morning when he came home for breakfast. He left again for the hospital and the rest of his customers.

Peg has what has been going around
she calls it the "Crud".

The sparrows and starlings & blackbirds
all 1,000,000,000,000 of them are driving me crazy at the window - I just wallowed out and fed them up under the tree. We finally have Chickadees coming to the window feeder - about a month now. One Chickadee has a crippled leg he holds it out behind him all the time.

We were to get our new car today
but I'm sure that we will not go after it now. I hope we like the Calder - when you order from a book and not by sight - I always wonder

I can't seem to think of anything else to write about so - so - long

Dear Mr. Powell:

The Faculty Committee appointed to review applicants for the special graduate fellowships under the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of The George Washington University has announced the names of those to whom awards have been made for the summer of 1967.

I regret very much to have to inform you that you were not awarded one of the fellowships. The limited number of awards and the general high quality of applicants made the Committee's decisions very difficult.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Earl

Greetings from warm, sunny Virginia (?). First off I got the slides and, gosh and horrors, the two of 'em being attacked by a pecker (red-billed ox type) blurred. Apparently the peckers were, yes you guessed it, pecking too rapidly. The peacock with the tail up made a fair photo, but best of all was one snap of the flamingo cage.

I am negotiating with the "higher-ups" to draft your landlord.

The weekend was a grand success. Nobody mooned, nobody "lunched," and times were pleasant and friendly.

"I'll have a kosher dog, coke, and cheese cake, please."

Beautiful pictures of today - Ref: Wash. post (small pic) - Thursday, April 13, 1967 Pg. 1; Sec B, Pg B1. Joy & Bliss.

I await your visit south to Williamsburg, Fort Wallace, and Virginia Beach. —

Couldn't find the chicken joke, so I'll enclose "an open letter to Lynda Johnson." It's not the best reproduction, but the original wasn't "so hot."

God Bless Snaki.

Dear Si and Earl,

I had been 3 or 4 months since you wrote and I included your invitation for visitors to Washington.
Well, I expect a small party of 6 to 7 from April 26 to 29! Actually, I am going to Chaperone my seniors on their trip to Washington, so I hope I'll have time to see you two handsome students - that is, if you're not horribly busy. I've written Judy Yoder, my old Ad Room mate, and hope to see her. She is working for the White House rooming with Mary Ann Chapada until she goes Europe with Lenny Baker. This trip involves a lot of visits to spots all over Washington but our evenings will be relatively free (Wed and Fri) - We'll be at the Inn at the Capitol where all the high school groups stay - so hope to see you if possible.

How are you these days? Am anxious for this year to be over - only 6 1/2 more weeks of school. Am planning on starting for my masters
this summer, though I don't relish studying -
I have a lot more to learn if I plan to continue teaching. I'm at the Mountain View High School Si - a few of the teachers play golf at your parents course - ain't that interesting!

Here^{are} a few words from Zeta 703 -

Read the letter you sent to Kate - I won't be able to make it down to see you until this summer.

I withdrew from the Industrial Arts program at D.C. before Fall Term was over. Enrolled in a design program at the Stanton Center of D.C. during Winter Term. It's kind of average. I've been living at home - working on some sports cars, etc.

Have been hanging down to the knees since Fall. Tom Hamble came up to see me a couple of weeks ago. He got some great job offers - second best in the Aero. Engr. Dept.

Got a Zeta Zephyr today. See you this summer - I hope. Will hope we get together for a group meeting. Take care.

1 April 16, 1967.

Dear Sir,

If you haven't already torn up this letter, (after you saw the handwriting on the envelope) I hope you'll accept it as an apology - a very sincere apology. I'm sorry! Really!

After giving you such a (short!) sermon about hanging up on me, I very nicely controlled myself and did the same thing to you. What I don't understand is why you did it in the first place. If you didn't want to talk why didn't you say so? Remember your comments on sincerity? (You must be getting old.) Also, I didn't expect to get such a rough treatment about my "no-show" status last weekend. I really expected Arden to call you. You know I always enjoy myself when I visit D.C.

However, you and Earl always seem to go out of your way to roll out the red carpet and show me a good time, that sometimes, I feel like I'm a burden to you both. As I said, I always have a good time, but I only hope you are, too.

Since I've "disappointed you" (twice, I do believe), I'm rather hesitant about going to the wedding in May. I have a little quirk about disappointing people - especially people I care for - you might call it a constant fear. It seems I've always done it, and it bothers me now to think I can't stop. I'm trying not to - really!

Interesting Quote:

"He promises according to our hopes, and performs according to our fears."

Roche foucauld.

Right now, I'm wondering how many times one person can forgive another. I suppose it depends on the people and circumstances and how we evaluate them. I was going to throw in a long explanation about how hectic Monday was, but that's really no excuse.

If this letter seems poorly written and incoherent thus far, it's because I always have a rough time apologizing. A rather weak point in my favor. In fact, I'd better end the apology before I get carried away.

Judy and I have been having a rough time here. As you know (I think), Penny Varjan was living with us. Well, she's still here. Things have been quite tense - off and on - crying spells - and everything - else you can think of. Penny hasn't made any attempts to go on her own. (George divorced her about a month ago). Consequently, this quite a problem. Of course, it's more involved than that - but much too long to explain in a letter. Judy gave her an ultimatum - today - she has to leave at the end of April. Penny didn't take it very well, and I suspect that the next two weeks are going to be tense.

Remember I told you that I wanted to go to a ticket counter? Well, I've changed my mind. On Friday the Supervisor at the Hall Street office said he had it all wrapped up for me to work there. However, I'd only work there half a day, and then been up to the Pan Am Bldg and be a hostess at the Copter Club. My supervisor asked me not to go - then I thought of myself in a uniform and got violently ill. So, Alex, my Supervisor, is going to call the Personnel Dept, and have them tear up my transfer request. Actually, I wanted to go to the Hall Street Counter, and it was Alex who called the Supervisor to get me in. I suppose I should feel fortunate - and I do, because most people don't get a choice. Also, my new manager has me set up for special training classes, which I would probably miss, if I went to a ticket counter. . . . Rationalization again - I know.

I won't be able to call you very much, because my new manager is quite a miserable individual. He frowns on such things. Anyway, I wouldn't call until I knew you weren't angry anymore.

I hope you're not! I hope your plans for grad school are materializing. I'm sure everything will be all right. I know that's easy to say, and sounds phony, but these schools
must be fools not to accept you.
Besides, you've done so very well thus far. I can't picture you any other way. (but doing well)

I was just about to end
my letter with the usual
"Write Soon," but I have not right to ask or request that.
Write - if you want to - not because you feel you must.

Sincerely,
Sally

Under the Hair Dryer
Wed. Am

Dear Bob--

I Can't seem to settle down at home long enough to write to you so I'll try now while the dryer is buzzing away

We were very glad to talk with you yesterday. Once again I'll say to you and write to you - when we don't get a letter or call for so long we, both of us, speak of you often wondering how you are making out - you see - we still think of you - even tho you consider yourself an adult able to take care of yourself out in this great big adult world

I'm glad you were accepted at two Universities so that you could have a choice. I hope everything works out the way you want it to.

I guess we all have problems -
Apr 17 Income Tax deadline really hurts when business really hasn't started yet - we thank the Good Lord that we had a good play last weekend, it helped us out. It has rained here off and on since Sunday morn. and it is cold too - so no business this week except two rainy day golfers yesterday.

When I parked on River St. this morning I saw a couple yellow Forsythia blossoms - that's the first I've seen. The golf courses are a beautiful green tho. - people speak about the beautiful color. Homestead was wet in spots over the weekend and Lakeland was pretty dry.

There is lots of snow blight on the greens this spring - it was a hard winter on them - melting and freezing and 70° temperature in January etc. Walter is trying to work on them but the weather is against him - he is spraying them today and it is a cold.

The winter was very rough on the roads this year too - I have never seen our road - 106 - so broken up and big holes - down by the Italian Cemetery there was a terrible hole and one up above our house opposite 5th Ave - if you hit them - look out.

The car is very nice. We had a few short trips in it - the last Sunday before we opened up at Lakeland we went for a ride up into New York State by the two big reservoirs Pauwpaton and Connelville and up to Ashokan Dam near Kingston and back down to Port Jervis and stopped at Hawks Nest to look over the wall - Wayyyyy down remember the road that winds around the Mountain like that ! ! ! ! with places to stop

You boys used to like to stop there.

Well - enough nonsense for now.

Dear Sir,

It's not really April 30th but we have to set our clocks one hour ahead - Judy and I did that a bit early - ~~so~~ by our standards (and alarm clock) it's April 30th. Does that make sense? No! Tough!

Actually, Susco invited us for a drink this evening and we were discussing Mary Ann's marriage plans and ~~embury~~ a bit - so I'm a bit high. However, we were discussing you - so I decided to write a letter - (make sense - No! Tough!). Judy is presently looking up a quotation to send to you, but, she's not doing very well. (This letter isn't really going to make too much sense - but as you know, men never do - so why worry now.)

Judy is presently ~~memorizing~~ French to some ~~juvenile delinquents~~

who are making some noise
under our window. Of course,
she's mumbling under her breath.
What a coward! Now, she found a poem or quotation to send to
you. Actually, if I wanted to impress you, I'd send one too,
but I know you don't understand Chinese very well, so I won't embarrass you.

I was so glad to hear
that Earl's campaign went well.
You know, someday he could very well be President of the USA or Brazil, but he'll be so busy giving dinner parties for old friends that he won't have time to campaign. Actually, I'd prefer to go to one of his dinner parties than one of his press conferences. (He mixes a great drink and they don't give drinks at press conferences. At least, they didn't give any at

3.

I'd love to use the word
"seriously", but under the circumstances I find it an inconvenient word to use - we'll postpone it for a later date and I'll leave it - I feel like just rambling on about nothing -
I hope you don't mind.

Tomorrow, I'm attending
the Episcopal Church with Judy!
Which - whatever you do don't tell the Pope. No, I'm not converting - just learning. Besides, I think I'll enjoy it, especially since I love to sing. This may be my opportunity to be discovered.
Will success spoil Salomay (or)?
That's what I like about me -
I'm such a conservative - white - Anglo-Saxon Protestant - always protesting.

(Judy is showing off by trying to sing with Charles Agnew. However, I'll stand and I can give her some real tough competition.)

By the way, Don called, and he's definitely visiting you next (this?) weekend. Just a warning - he's happy on the outside - but crying on the inside - His luck, especially with Europe hasn't been too good. I can't explain it too well, because it means being serious - and it would be my biased opinion.

As I told you Penny left yesterday. I was really happy and relieved that she was going, but at the same time - very sorry. I wanted to help her very badly, but I really failed. Sincerely, Penny is a good person, but she lacks an enthusiasm for life - or living. It was so very frustrating for both Judy and I to listen to or watch her. I tried to talk to her so often, but she explained herself by saying that she was extremely selfish and cared for ~~no one~~ but herself. Really - what could I say or do after that comment.

I.

It's difficult to believe that both of us could have misjudged Perry as we did. I guess, as my father said, "I learned," but Si, I didn't like what I learned.

Enough said! Speaking of learning, I'm sure you're having quite an affair with your French books. However, don't overdo it - because you'll have nothing - absolutely nothing to worry about. If you really get worried I'll send you a Hybnum - I have no reason to take them now - for my apple supply is yours. I know what you're thinking - Such Generosity. - Oh Yay!

Well, I just got off the phone with both of you folks. You're really delightful! I'm really glad we're still friends (in spite of your book) - because

who else but Judith Allyn
could put up with me.

I really must retire
to my boudoir - first, I'll change the records though.
Judy is still spouting French -
I just hope she remembers to blow out the candles. By the way, Judy wouldn't translate the poetry for me - so I hope you like it.

Carl - if you're reading this letter and I hope you are & since Judy and I have so much in common with French - you and I will have to get together on the Open-Door Policy (only in NYC that's a bit dangerous.) Also Judy and Edith send their love.

Respectfully Yours,

Dear Bob,

Rain, Rain More Rain then snow -
then rain & wind and Cold and More rain - This is the story of our lives.
Walter Can't get on the Council to Cut grass. We really have had rotten, stinky putrid, horrible, unbearable weather

We went down to see Leah and Elaine Rees
a couple of weeks ago and Timmy their youngest son is going to Washington
to work with Civil Service somewhere near the end of June. He was at his wit's end ~~and~~ as to what he would find to "stay at" so we offered you assistance - we that he could stay a few nights or maybe a week with you until he got situated. We gave them your address and telephone number. It would be nice and a favor to us if you will accommodate him.

Barbara Hill doesn't clean for me.

any more - too much to do at home. It has been a month since I had help.
Ida Mae Barrow is here this morning for the first time. Its good to have someone again altho with the weather
we've been having I've had time to do it myself.

I hope that by now you are all prepared for the 15+16th maybe one day will be over with. I wish you lots of luck.

Russ has received his orders - he will leave Bainbridge July 28 - have 30 days leave - then be assigned to Ranierville, Rhode Island for four weeks temporarily, then he doesn't know yet where he'll be.

It will be nice to have you home
for a visit this summer - maybe it will be while Russ and Ann are home.
Welllll - as to a reservation - I think we can manage it.

It was very reasonable - probably only a few dollars $3 or 4 - for him to get his baggage home in bus.

Before you decide to sell your things to Ed. why not find out if you can use them at Indiana - what about renting a car & truck and moving them yourself it might be cheaper than buying things out there.

You'll have to ask me whether so and so is yours because I don't remember what you have & what Con has. I'm sure that your kitchen things were not meant to be jointly owned.

What are you going to do with all the birds you have and might have?

Did you know that your brother is an author now? How about that

Well I can't think of anything more, the rain is driving me crazy.

Hope you can accommodate Timmy Ross. Love
Mom

Cher Robert,

Je suis encore une fois chez moi
après avoir demeuré pendant presque six semaines avec Marilyn et Jennifer Wilgo hi chez elles à Huntingdon Valley. Ed a accepté une nouvelle situation à Chicago, où il a commencé à travailler le 27 mars.
C'est comme rédacteur des matériaux pour accompagner le

2
cours de français Encyclopedia

Brittanica Films qu'on employait
à Abington High School où il a enseigné. On lui a offert un traitement de $ 14,000, qu'il ne
pouvait pas refuser.

Lui et Marilyn ont passé plusieurs jours à Chicago en cherchant une demeure sans aucun succès. La compagnie
a logé Ed dans un hôtel, et il m'a prié de demeurer chez
eux ^{à Huntingdon Valley} pour que Marilyn et Jennifer

Miss Marjorie E. Smith

ne soient pas seules dans leur grande maison. C'était le plus grand plaisir pour moi, bien entendu, et j'ai aimé chaque moment. Ed a enfin acheté une maison neuve qui coûte beaucoup plus qu'il ne voulait dépenser, et ils ont déménagé le week-end passé, (ou plutôt emménagé à Chicago). C'est une occasion merveilleuse pour

Ed de se faire connaître dans sa profession. À l'âge de 30 ans, il avait avancé aussi loin que possible dans l'enseignement secondaire des langues.

Le jour après le départ de Marilyn, elle m'a envoyé un billet aller et retour par avion à Chicago pour que je leur rende visite la semaine du 18 juin, ce qui m'a beaucoup touchée - car les Wilgochi me manquent beaucoup déjà.

Je viens de relire votre dernière
lettre, du 24 janvier, et je ne
trouve pas de dates pour vos
examens ou pour votre thèse. Ça va être bientôt, sans doute. J'ai pensé si souvent à vous, mon cher fils, et j'espère que tout
va bien dans votre travail.
Le feu brûle vraiment ardemment à présent, je parie. Bonne chance, mon cher. Je sais que je serai très fier de vos succès!

Avez-vous des projets pour
l'été ou pour l'année prochaine?

Est-ce que vous et Earl aurez
l'occasion de me rendre visite après vos examens? Quelle est
la date où vous recevrez votre
M.A.? Il faudra célébrer ça, n'est-ce pas? Faites-moi savoir comment tout va, s'il vous plait!

Meilleurs vœux à Earl.

Silkowitz, mon professeur Maman n° 2
associé, va la remplacer!

Cher Robert,

J'étais si heureuse de recevoir
votre bonne lettre hier, et j'ai essayé de vous téléphoner hier soir
pour vous féliciter d'avoir réussi
dans vos examens écrits et oraux.

Quand vous viendrez ici, il vous faudra me dire toutes les questions, n'est-ce pas? Apportez aussi votre thèse pour que je la lise.

Cela m'intéressera beaucoup.

Félicitations aussi de votre bourse à Indiana State! Je ne peux pas ^mimaginer qu'on puisse avoir 73 "Teaching fellows". Mon
diu - quel département de français!

Je serai enchantée de vous
retrouver à Philadelphie le matin du 27 juin. Malheureusement, je serai occupée la soirée de lundi le 26, mais je viendrai
vous chercher quand vous arriverez le matin du 27 avec le plus grand plaisir. Faites-moi savoir l'heure tout de suite,

Miss Marjorie E. Smith

s'il vous plaît, afin que je la sache avant mon départ pour Chicago le 19. Ça rendra mon retour à Ambler plus joyeux si je peux
anticiper votre visite.

Tous mes élèves passeront
leur examen de français lundi le 12. Ils ont déjà fait une question de prononciation et une question de compréhension orale.
Comment est-ce que vos élèves

ont fait dans leur examen^{final}, de français? Apportez-m'en un exemplaire si vous en avez un, n'est-ce pas? Tout ce que vous faites m'intéresse tellement,
et il faut remplir la grande
vide de vos nouvelles pour moi, mon cher fils! Je suis si très contente que vous alliez me rendre visite le 27^e et le 28^e.
J'attends avec impatience l'heure
de votre arrivée!

Greeting from the U.S. Army.

The magic number is "200." Yes, Dear Donald's Second Annual Blow-Your-Mind New Years Eve Party is just around the corner.

Do hope we can all get together on that one.

Si, did you enjoy the lake water in New Hampshire. Brother Ronnie and I were swimming twice when the water temperature was reported in the mid-fifties. Truman hasn't been the same since.

The next time you fly Northeast, please look for part of my stomach. I lost it in an air pocket.

J. C. Needham has been saving over D.C. and the welcome, especially Earl's efforts towards employment; but then you French majors wouldn't care about money.

"What does your friend do?"

"Oh, he's a French Major."

"Has he been in the French Army a long time?"

"Have I ever told you about Eagle Mountain....."

Concerning this horror show, I mean party, in N.Y. the 24th do you plan to trip up on Friday evening or Sat. morning? Will you fly and are you going to "Shack" at Donald's? Please advise. as for now

BANZAI, Frank

P.S.

I've got a candid picture of "the 1" them, if one of them had longer legs and spoke a little, well, hum,
have I ever told you about Eagle Mountain for wayward fawks.
Well it seems that a family of crows moved in and depreciated the neighboring nests.....

I shall see you, God willing, on the weekend of the 24th.

just a little "graphic art" for you to frame and hang in the kitchen.
I call it "Love's Leaps."

Dear Robert,

The summer routine of work, sun, and fun has unfolded, and so far these past two weeks have been an absolute pleasure. I've worked two weekends at Unity House and I've done pretty well money wise. This week I saw my girl friend (one of the rare chances we get) and we went to Atlantic City for a day. To say the least it was a relaxing jaunt. When we went to get a shower the lady there asked me if we wanted to share a locker to which I answered with a quick "No, separate please." To tell the truth I never answered a question quicker. The boardwalk there is nice, and offers a variety of things for all kinds of people. Even existentialists - By the way, I read and enjoyed Camus' The Stranger, in English of course. To me it presented a new view on things, on society, I think everyone should read J. Camus. He does a masterful job of interweaving nature within the context of man's life. But then again I don't have to convince you about Camus, I'm just glad I read it.

Pretty soon I'll be working full time at Unity House. If I don't have too much trouble with the management I'll stay until September. Otherwise I might look for work in Washington or Philadelphia. I must have a persecution complex of some kind because I get the feeling the manager does not like me. That makes it tough considering his son & I room together at Unity House. So I'll see how the summer goes in that respect.

Things for me look okay. My girl still likes me, and I her, so what could be nicer - right? My father still lets me live home, he still talks to me; all in all I guess I'm pretty lucky to have what I do considering there are so many poor slobs who don't have the benefits I have. I don't have any complaints... yet...

I hope you are not suffering in the heat. It has been terribly warm here & I can just imagine Wash. How was your visit to your brothers? My brother

Robert is going to have his 3rd child in August -
But give me a few years and maybe I'll catch him.

Right now I've been following this Mid East War - Amazing how Israel can do what it does,
yet too bad there is no solution for the Israelis
except to destroy the Arabs all together - otherwise
the Arabs will keep trying until they succeed.
I think Israel should hold out this time for a substantial peace treaty with international guarantees - how do you feel about this latest miscalculation?

Okay kid, I'm going to get down to some serious sunning. By the way I'm going to apply to Columbia, U. of P., N.Y.U., G.W., and Boston
Univ Law Schools. I hope to get in somewhere.
I hope things are working out for you for the best.

Take care

Eric

[one of my

Dear Bob,

Tues 27th

Decided to come down to Washington this week for 2 days because it would probably be the only chance I would get - I hope you had a good trip and got to Philly on time. Hope also that you did not try too hard to get to Unity House. Starting with this weekend I'll be there for the summer, which is not such a thrilling thought. I am having a good time, but the management has tightened up on us and several of my good friends have quit. So we'll see how long I can stick it out.

By the way, I missed Eban's speech, but I hope he gave it to them god. It seems as if the world just doesn't know where its going anymore.

If nothing else relax this summer. If you get the chance drop me a line on how things are & don't fail to give me your address for next year. I'm going to apply to Law Schools this summer; including G.W., Columbia, NYU, Univ of Penn and Boston Univ. All need a lot of luck and a 4.0 next semester —

Eric

P.S. Sorry I couldn't make it when you were here.
I'm sure you'll be able to make it through the next few years though without seeing me or any of us.
Wish you the best —

Cher Robert,

J'espère que vous n'avez pas manqué votre autobus mercredi soir. Je mets sur ce même pli un article de journal qui explique ce qui se passait dans le Parkway. Vous aviez bien raison - c'était un défilé des Mummers même si ce n'était pas le 1^{er} janvier !

Je viens d'arriver chez les Walzochi après un voyage tout à fait agréable. Il faisait frais et beau, et je n'ai jamais conduit Constance avec si peu d'effort, car je ~~gare~~ suivais les "Turnpikes" presque tout le temps. A présent la petite Jennifer dort et Marilyn fait des courses en ville.

Je veux vous dire tout de suite que nos projets pour la semaine du 21 août doivent être changés. Ed et Marilyn et le bébé vont passer cette semaine ^{là} en Pennsylvanie chez les parents de Marilyn. Ed va avoir un "workshop" à Kutztown le 22 et le 23 août. Marilyn suggère que nous venons la semaine suivante. Est-ce que cela vous conviendrait?

Nous pourrions partir d'Amble le matin du 28 août. Pour éviter la circulation du week end de Labour Day, nous devrions revenir à Amble vendredi le 1^{er} septembre.

Je vous envoie - aussi sous ce même pli - une petite carte des "Tumblers". J'ai parlé à un agent de tourisme qui suggère que vous
descendiez de mon auto et montiez dans l'autobus à South Bend. Avez-vous trouvé des renseignements au sujet des autobus à Bloomington? Deux des cousins de Garine sont diplômés de l'Université d'Indiana, et ils l'ont beaucoup aimée.

Faites-moi savoir si ou non la semaine du 28 vous convient. Vous auriez moins de temps pour chercher une demeure à Bloomington - où vous arriveriez
l'après-midi de mardi et partiriez jeudi.

J'étais si heureuse de vous revoir la semaine passée. Bonne chance avec votre thèse, qui va être excellente, j'en suis sûre.

Votre dévouée,
Maman n° 2

Festival of Fountains Provides Wonderland For 50,000 Spectators

By JEREMY HEYMSFELD

Of The Inquirer Staff

For two hours Wednesday evening, Logan Circle was a wonderland of sights and sound as 50,000 spectators gathered on Benjamin Franklin Parkway for the seventh annual Festival of Fountains parade.

Highlight of the summer spectacular was a thunderous fireworks finale which bathed the darkened circle in a panoply of color.

FIREWORKS PLEASE

This year the fireworks lasted 15 minutes, a performance that left Jack Duffield of Chicago and the city officials who hired him in a festive mood.

The spectacle, with 10 Mummers bands and a variety of floats, was hailed by City Representative Abe S. Rosen as "New Years, Christmas and the Fourth of July all rolled into one."

Rosen, who served as grand marshal of the parade, had a special interest in the proceedings which were held in part to dramatize the city's newest slogan: "Summertime is Fun-time in Philadelphia."

OTHER INTERESTS

Other interests represented included the U. S. Post Office, which rolled out a freshly painted mail truck; the Philadelphia Zoo, with a small bus decorated with animal pictures, and the American Wax Museum, which provided an open convertible with a familiar figure in evening clothes occupying the back seat.

The parade announcer identified the wax figure as President Johnson. Some in the crowd were sure that Count Dracula had been substituted by mistake.
